August 24, 1961 — June 29, 1980

Gina Renee Hall, a native of Coeburn, Virginia, was brutally murdered on June 29, 1980. She was only 18 years old with so much of her life left to live.

Although Gina's body was never found, the case proceeded to trial in December, 1980. The prosecuting attorney for the Commonwealth of Virginia tried Gina's killer Stephen Epperly with only circumstantial evidence—No body, No confession, No witness. He met the burden of proof. Epperly was convicted of murder in the first degree of Gina Renee Hall in Pulaski County, Virginia, and sentenced to Life. Epperly is currently incarcerated at the Buckingham Correctional Center in Dillwyn, Virginia. He gets two parole opportunities every one to three years depending on the board's deferment. In addition to Regular Parole, he now also qualifies for Geriatric Parole based on his age. A collective, state-wide effort to oppose, always.

Gina Hall's murder is not simple...it is complex.

But simple won the conviction.

Of course, the objective of any trial is to have a successful outcome—
The conviction of a killer.

This case has been studied by many for decades because of its notoriety and the precedence set as a ‘no body’ conviction. Unfortunately, what is studied is only what was ‘chosen’ to be presented in the trial. A narrative that was based on the killer’s composed story became the foundational basis of the case and the trial.

Girl meets boy.

Girl refuses boy.

Boy becomes enraged.

Boy kills Girl.

The “factual account” known as the Gina Hall case was built from that simplified storyline, not the complex truth found in the investigative files.

Facts unknown to the public are necessary to fully understand what transpired—

The True Story of Gina Hall

GINA’S VOICE

The complete investigative case file facts are necessary.

Steve Epperly - 4 days after he murdered Gina -
The eyes are Windows to your Soul

What fueled Epperly's already arrogant and confident nature— this prevalent thought—

There is no body What can they really do?....Changing to — There is no body found - how could this have happened? How did I lose? It was not supposed to be this way...There was no body.

Epperly's confidence apparent as he walked into the courtroom, very smug, yellow legal pad in hand. Full of Pride, Arrogance, Confidence...Evil.
