Mrs. Brown,
I apologize for the late email. This evening, about 15 minutes ago, Rebecca [REDACTED] called. David answered. The same time I did. All I could hear is how Rebecca is about to bring it down on me. And instructed him to not leave this home. She is very angry that Jamie and I are moving out.
I need your help please. I am so overwhelmed and stressed over how I've been treated.
Please call me if you can.

With love.

Chris is still here!
